Echoes of Eden: Reflections on Christianity, Literature ...

In Echoes of Eden, Jerram Barrs argues that evangelicals shouldn't fear art, but should instead selectively and joyfully embrace it. His main thesis is that all good art contains "echoes of Eden"—glimpses of humanity's original creation, fall into sin, and ultimate redemption. To best appreciate the book, keep in mind that Barrs is writing from a Reformed (PCA) perspective for a lay ...
