Mystery Peter Straub

Peter Straub is an amazing author, and although his favorite novel of mine is Julia, Mystery has become a favorite of mine as well. It's not really scary, but incredibly eerie, gripping and intense, as vivid as real-life.

Peter Straub - Wikipedia

Years ago, I read several of Peter Straub's books, including Mystery, and that's what this question is about. I remember as I was reading Mystery, it occurred to me that one of the situations the characters solved--being a murder at a ritzy lake resort where the upper class took their vacations--was very familiar to me, and I recalled reading a separate novel about that mystery only.
