Bodies is a pioneering endeavor that links the study of Islam to major research agendas in religious studies. Using a rich body of previously untapped sources in Arabic, Persian, and Urdu from late medieval and early modern Islamic history, Kugle explores the theoretically fertile concept of 'embodiment' with methodological rigor

Bodies, Mysticism

The saints' bodies, Kugle argues, are treated as symbolic resources for generating religious meaning, communal solidarity, and the experience of sacred power. In each chapter, Kugle also features a particular theoretical problem, drawing methodologically from religious studies, anthropology, studies of gender and sexuality, theology,
