Wanderer, your footsteps are the road, and nothing more; wanderer, there is no road, the road is made by walking. By walking one makes the road, and upon glancing behind one sees the path that never will be trod again. Wanderer, there is no road- Only wakes upon the sea. — Antonio Machado, Campos de Castilla.

We Make the Road by Walking - Brian McLaren

"The teacher is of course an artist, but being an artist does not mean that he or she can make the profile, can shape the students. What the educator does in teaching is to make it possible for the students to become themselves." — Paulo Freire, We Make the Road by Walking: Conversations on Education and Social Change

We Make the Road by Walking Quotes by Myles Horton

We Make the Road by Walking is an attempt to present that coherent, comprehensive narrative in an accessible and constructive way. To be accessible, I needed to avoid religious jargon and write with a simple, direct style. I decided to write the chapters as short sermons that could be read aloud in about ten minutes each.
