A good friend a fairly good listener and notices how little, day-to-day things affect you. She can't read your mind, but chances are she can usually tell when you're happy, sad, excited, shocked or upset. If a good friend is aware that she's doing something that annoys you, she'll try to change her ways or at least talk to you about it.

True Friends - Qualities of a Good Friend
NBC's "Friends" first aired in 1994 and even though it's famous, there are a lot of things you may not know about the show.: Jennifer Aniston was the last of the main six to officially join the cast. She also hated her haircut, "The Rachel." The character Ross was created with David Schwimmer in mind and he almost passed on reading for the part.

My Friend Maisy: Welcome
"Friends" is one of the most beloved TV shows of all time, but that doesn't mean it's perfect. Now that HBO Max has launched with the hit NBC sitcom on its roster, plenty of fans will be compelled to rewatch and reminisce about its groundbreaking episodes, fan-favorite couples, iconic pieces of furniture -- and, for some, its biggest flaws... In addition to some glaringly problematic story ...
